I.K.O. Matsushima Karate Tournament
Semi contact, moderated Knock Down and Knock Down

14th April 2018 in Denmark

Who: BS Cup is a tournament for everybody, experienced as well as inexperienced fighters.
The classes for inexperienced fighters are reserved for fighters with very little experience. Fighters may only have attended a few tournaments before this. As a senior you must not have participated in National Tournaments, European Championships etc.
Experienced fighters on the age of 18 years and above must fight in the Knock Down class.
Participants will be matched by grade, weight, experience, age etc.
For participation you must be at least 8 years. All grades are welcome.

Classes: Semi Contact, Moderated Knock Down and Knock Down. Participants will be divided into classes, which take into account the degree, weight, experience, age, etc. There is fought after cup system, where all in the first match is meeting someone with the same experience. There are usually about 24 different classes, among them also a senior class for 40+ years.

Note that there are different requirements for protection for fighters 14-15 year of age depending on whether they are in class for experienced or inexperienced.
